

Help improve conversations about sexual wellbeing

Can you help us design materials to help conversations about sexual wellbeing during cancer treatment?

We are looking for participants who are past patients, carers or significant others to join us for a relaxed discussion about conversation aids on:

Tuesday 7th March 2023, 10am-12pm

Please contact gynaecancer@lancaster.ac.uk if you would like to join the conversation

The event will take place in Lancaster

Time and expenses will be paid
